ACCENT Health Recruitment Recruitment Process Flow Chart

Initial Inquiry with ACCENT Health Recruitment:

Step 1	Call / email or meeting with ACCENT Health Recruitment
	• Sand CV for assessment reformat CV in N7 style if necessary
Step 2	<ul> <li>Send CV for assessment - reformat CV in NZ style if necessary</li> </ul>
	Complete ACCENT application form
Step 3
Step 4	Confirm referees available to complete reference reports
	Informal interview with ACCENT Health Recruitment recruiter
Step 5	- Discuss where, when and for how long you will work in NZ
	• Prepare and present application to the registration council - this
Step 6	is a priority

ACCENT Health Recruitment finds you a job:

Arrival Preparation:

- Start the immigration process WHV or Work Visa
  - Engage an immigration consultant if necessary

Step 14

- Make contact with bank in NZ arrange account in advance and finalise once in NZ
- - You will need a NZ address to open an account in most cases

Step 15

Book flights – and send flight details to ACCENT HR

Step 16

Book own or get assistance to get accommodation on arrival

Step 17

• Ensure your registration is finalised and you have a current APC

On Arrival into NZ:

(Ideally arrive into NZ 5 working days or more prior to start date)

Step 18

Finalise bank account

Step 19

• Apply for IRD Number (once bank account is finalised – this can be done online)

Step 20

 Complete Occupational health requirements for role if needed (AHR will advise you)

Step 21

Network with other candidates based in NZ

Step 22

Look for permanent accommodation

Congratulations on making the move to New Zealand.

We wish you all the best and hope you enjoy your new job and life in NZ!

ACCENT Health Recruitment will keep in touch with you over the course of the first year!

